

Middle School Student of the Month

December, 2019

8th Grade: Mason Parzuchowski

Parents:

Stephanie Boone & Brian Parzuchowski

Why selected as the Student of the Month:

Mason is a hard working student. He has improved over previous years and is showing great effort and maturity.

What you most like about Gar-Pal Middle School:

Lunch

Activities:

Playing Rocket League, Fortnite, Minecraft, and hockey

Favorite Movie:

Avengers End Game

Favorite Food:

Totino's Pizza Rolls

Favorite Junk Food:

Chocolate Milk

Proudest moment:

Winning a tournament in Rocket League with people that are a lot better than me.

Middle School Student of the Month

December, 2019

7th Grade: Iris Turner

Parents:

Talya and Forrest Turner

Why selected as the Student of the Month:

Iris takes care of business and always completes her work, comes to class prepared and is a positive example.

Role Model:

My dad is my role model because he has been through so much and he does so much for us to have everything that we could ever need.

What you most like about Gar-Pal Middle School:

I like how small the school is so that teachers can help us when we need help individually.

Activities:

Volleyball, drama, and cheerleading

Favorite Movie:

Any scary movie

Favorite Food:

Oranges

Favorite Junk Food:

Curly fries

Proudest moment:

Whenever I get an "A" in hard classes at the end of the quarters.

Middle School Student of the Month

December, 2019

6th Grade: Lane Collier

Parents:

Shai and Matt Collier

Why selected as the Student of the Month:

Lane is very kind and helpful. He is very responsible and always does his work.

Role Model:

My parents and Stephen Curry

What you most like about Gar-Pal Middle School:

The teachers

Activities:

Sports

Favorite Movie:

Indiana Jones

Favorite Food:

Pizza

Favorite Junk Food:

Candy

Proudest moment:

Going to championships in sports.

