

Middle School Student of the Month

February 2019

8th Grade: Kennedy Cook

Parents: Brenda and Chris Cook

Activities: Kennedy enjoys playing basketball, volleyball and track. She is also a member of the band.

What Kennedy most likes about Gar-Pal

Middle School: “The best thing about Gar-Pal is that there is a track team.

Role Model: Chris Cook

“He competed at WSU in the triple-jump and I want to work hard and be that good.”

Quote: Push yourself because no one is going to do it for you.

Future Plans: I plan on going to college and becoming a nurse.

7th Grade: Noemie Appel

Parents: Tara Appel and Neil Appel

Activities: Noemie is keeps herself busy with the swim team, soccer, and training her sheep for the fair. In her free time she likes to draw, read, play the flute and run.

What Noemie most likes about Gar-Pal Middle School: “I most like the students and the teachers at GPMS.”

Role Model: Her cousin Tom Hayford

“He is my role model because first of all he is an engineer and he got me excited about engineering. The trip we took to WSU with Mr. Patrick and the 7th grade girls also help my interest in engineering.”

Quote: “This is what I say when people say I am mean, “I am not mean, I’m brutally honest, Life Sucks, here’s a band aid.”

Future Plans: Noemie plans on going to college to become an engineer.

6th Grade: Hailey Beckner

Parents: Heather and David Beckner

Activities: Hailey is busy with basketball, volleyball, cheerleading, track and youth group.

What Hailey most likes about Gar-Pal Middle

School: “What I most like about Gar-Pal middle school is all the fun assembly’s.”

Role Model: Emma

“Emma is my role model because I want to grow up and dance part-time just like her. I have look up to her my whole life.”

Quote:

“If there are no dogs in heaven, then when I die I want to go where the dogs go.”

Will Rogers

Future Plans: “I want to go to school for business and then open my own animal training business.”

