

Middle School Student of the Month

January, 2020

8th Grade: Forrest San Miguel

Parents:

Caleb & Renee San Miguel

Why selected as the Student of the Month:

Forrest works hard every day to become independent in daily jobs/tasks. He has a positive behavior even when the jobs/tasks are difficult.

What you most like about Gar-Pal Middle School:

Being able to communicate/interacting with others.

Activities:

Cross country, band, art, cooking

Favorite Food:

Toast

Favorite Junk Food:

Ritz crackers

Proudest moment:

Crossing the finish line at a cross country meet. Also, learning a new way to communicate with my school device.

Middle School Student of the Month

January, 2020

7th Grade: Landon Orr

Parents:

Robby & Tricia Johnson , Kiel & Deanna Orr

Why selected as the Student of the Month:

Landon is always working hard. He gets along well with peers and is always willing to try new things.

Role Model:

Jon Reyes/ Ryan Williams

What you most like about Gar-Pal Middle School:

The electives and sports

Activities:

Freestyle scooter riding, basketball, baseball, soccer, kingerboard, videos.

Favorite Movie:

Ratatouie

Favorite Food:

Spaghetti

Favorite Junk Food:

Pizza

Proudest moment:

Landing my first tailwhip.

Middle School Student of the Month

January, 2020

6th Grade: Quinnly Dan

Parents:

Mom- Sarina Smith, Grandma- Susan Smith,
Grandpa – Tuson Smith

Why selected as the Student of the Month:

Quinnly works hard and works well with others.
She also participates in a variety of activities.

Role Model:

My sport coaches and teachers

What you most like about Gar-Pal Middle School:

Friends and the thrill of running to different classes.

Activities:

All sports and electives

Favorite Movie:

La Bamba

Favorite Food:

Mexican

Favorite Junk Food:

Sour Skittles

Proudest moment:

When I got the highest score on a science test.

