

Middle School Student of the Month

March 2018

8th Grade: Lorena Guzman-Cooper

Parents: Morena Cooper and Donald Cooper

Why selected as March Student of the Month:

- Is a hard worker and willing to take on a lot of responsibility when working with others to complete projects
- Typically is positive, in a good mood making GPMS a positive place for those around her
- Works well with each of her classmates

Activities: Lorena likes to read, sleep, track and to learn new things.

What Lorena most likes about Gar-Pal Middle School:

Lorena most likes that the teachers are very one-on-one and try to help every student.

Role Model: Her Mom, Morena Cooper

“My role model is my mom because she is the reason I get up every morning. Also, she is always helping me and giving me ideas to get through things. In fact, my mom is very compassionate and always telling me to always try new things.”

Quote: “I’m not addicted to coffee, we’re just in a committed relationship.”

Future Plans: “I plan to get into a good college and become a neuropsychologist.”

7th Grade: Laynie Southern

Parents: Tim and Tami Southern

Why selected as March Student of the Month:

- Has a positive attitude
- Participates well in class and has worked hard to be consistent in school work
- Demonstrated a strong work ethic in cheer and volleyball

Activities: Laynie is very active with wrestling, track, cross country, volleyball, and cheer. She also enjoys band, robotics, reading and music.

What Laynie most likes about Gar-Pal Middle School:

Laynie likes P.E. and Science. They are both very exciting and fun.

Role Model: Usain Bolt

Laynie's role model is Usain Bolt because he is hard working, determined and never gives up. He does multiple running events, likes to try new things and gets out there no matter what.

Quote: "It is better to be absolutely crazy rather than positively boring"

- Marilyn Monroe

Future Plans: Laynie's future plans are to go to the University of Idaho and either be a teacher, chef or designer.
