

Middle School Student of the Month

March 2019

8th Grade: Nikole Emerson

Parents: Denise Marshall

Why selected as the student of the Month:

- Has really stepped it up this year as a student. Is working extremely hard and has consistently given her best effort. It has been noticeable.
- Interacts positively with her peers and teachers and works to avoid “drama”.

Role Model: Doreen Hanson

“She is my role model because she is so strong. She has had so many surgeries and heals so fast. She taught in the Navy and got her neck broke.”

What Nikole most likes about Gar-Pal Middle School:

“The best thing about Gar-Pal is that we have Rec. Nights so often and that we have so many electives for a small school.

Future Plans:

Nikole would like to either do cosmetology or go into the military.

7th Grade: JR Rojas

Parents: Krista Kline

Why selected as Student of the Month:

- JR is positive each and every day. He is always sure to say ‘Hi’ when he passes someone in the hall and has a smile on his face.
- Has been making good effort in his studies
- Did not let the disappointment of his broken leg and lost track season get him down.

Activities: JR enjoys sports and running and hopes to get back at it next year.

What JR most likes about Gar-Pal Middle School:

“I most like that most everyone is nice and gets along.”

Quote: Nothing is impossible. The word itself says, I’m possible.

Future Plans: Go into the military.

6th Grade: Landon Orr

Parents: Kiel, Deanna, Robby and Trica

Why selected as the Student of the Month:

- Has been a positive part of several sports teams this year.
- Participates actively in each class
- Has successfully made the transition from elementary school to middle school.

Role Model: Each of my parents

“They are nice, kind, funny, helpful and supportive. They teach me about things I want to learn such as cars, geology, animals and semi-trucks.

Activities:

Landon likes to scooter riding, basketball, baseball, soccer, geology, dirt bikes, cooking and lego competitions.

What Landon most likes about Gar-Pal Middle School:

“What I most like about Gar-Pal middle school is how nice the teachers are to me. They help me when I need it, have a lot of fun electives, take us on trips have rec nights. They also so give you nick names.

Quote:

I like rocks

Future Plans: “I want to become a chef, pro scooter rider and/or a mechanic”
